Mock drill for longest chain yoga in city

[Pic. by Lakshminarayana Yadav]

Mysuru, June 17 (MTY&NNN)- There was palpable excitement in the air at the historic Mysuru Palace premises this morning, as thousands of students, freeing their arms and limbs, gathered for rehearsal to create the 'Longest Chain Yoga' record.

The District Administration was pleasantly surprised to see the sea of young students right from sixth standard to PUC gathered. They had expected about 5,000 students and kept an extra 1,000 students as buffer. But to see nearly 9,000 for the rehearsal itself swelled their hearts.

The students, from 33 schools and colleges including eight government schools and colleges, started arriving at the venue by 8 am. It took quite some time for yoga instructors to arrange them in a line of 50 in concentric circles. They then started performing four types of asanas—Veerabhadrasana 1, T*hrikonasana*, Veerabhadrasana 2 and Prasantha Padottanasana. It took two-and-a-half minutes to three minutes to complete and the rehearsal was done three times.

Each student had to stretch his or her right leg and then lock it with the left leg of the student standing next to him/her practise the postures perfectly by staying in the position for 30 seconds. Instructions were given by yoga guru Gururaj and city's international yoga champ H. Kushi demonstrated the asanas.

The District Administration is making all efforts to break the longest Chain Yoga record set by the Vidyashala in Perambudur, Tamil Nadu in 2014 with 3,854 students participating.

MLA Somashekar inaugurated the rehearsal by chanting Omkara.

DC Randeep said that the District Administration is making all efforts to create a Guinness World Record on International Day of Yoga (IDY) on June 21 as well as the 'Longest Chain Yoga' record on June 19. "The participation in today's rehearsal is overwhelming and the same enthusiasm should be shown tomorrow for the rehearsal at the Mysore Race Club for the rehearsal for IDY.

There will be two extra gates installed at the MRC (this will be apart from the five gates already in place) to regulate the flow of the yoga performers to enter the venue easily. "Bar coded tickets will be issued as also physical tickets will be given to the participants. The gates will be opened at 5.30 am and to avoid the rush, participants are requested to gather as early as possible," said Tourism Department Deputy Director H.P. Janardhan, speaking to Star of Mysore.

There will be 1,000 volunteers from NCC functioning as stewards, who will be in charge of 50 yoga performers.

Former Minister S.A. Ramdas, District Ayush officer Dr Seethalakshmi, University of Mysore Registrar D. Bharathi, Nehru Yuva Kendra Convenor M.N. Nataraj, Mysore Travel Association President B.S. Prashanth, GSS Foundation's D. Srihari, Palace Board Deputy Director T.S. Subramanya, Guinness World Record advisor Shailaja Srinath were present.

Reign of Red Tape

Only for the benefit of the people of this generation, etymology of the idiom Red Tape needs to be stated at the outset. It is thought to allude to the former practice of binding official documents in government offices in red coloured tape since the last decade of 19th century in UK, specially to hold important papers in the nature of documents together. Subsequently, the expression, familiar to old timers (in Mysuru and elsewhere) having to deal with bureaucrats in many countries including India, conveyed the now-commonly-understood feature of paper work by babudom without expected progress of matter in the official files. Grammarians look at the idiom Red Tape as metonymic, the figure of speech in which one word or phrase is substituted for another with which it is closely associated. In the present case, Red Tape is substituted for the pace at which babudom moves the files at the speed achieved by a lame turtle as it were. The practice survives to this day in the UK with pink coloured tape reportedly replacing the red tape. As for us bureaucrats of our land, it may not be challenged, the colour of the tape binding official papers in files is immaterial.

The term file is the lifeblood of the babus, to invoke the famous John Milton (1608-1674) quote "A good book is the precious lifeblood of a master spirit" (emphasis added). Citizens may be in a justifiable hurry to get clearances, approvals, sanctions, remittances, certification and whatever figuring in government files in the custody of babus, but these custodians couldn't care less.

We are frequently reading in dailies that the nation's Supreme Court along with the 24 High Courts at the 36 States and Union Territories in the country are yet to hear and deliver judgement in more than three crore cases. The files in the country's judicial system may have found their way to the offices of both the courts and the army of legal practitioners to which only dust and maths rightfully enter and stay put. The mountainous bulge of the files is beyond visualisation for its volume and weight. Add to this, the files in the world of the other two pillars of the government namely executive and legislature. Mercifully, we have not come across any estimate of the number of files pending final disposal in these offices. Their number may well be manifold the number held in the judicial system.

Lastly, there may be valid reasons for keeping files pending, but what about episodes of citizens getting a simple communication from offices such as Mysuru-based Mysuru Urban Development Authority stating that the particular file is not traceable (Kadatha labhyvilla in Kannada). Blessed are those whose files are not lost and more blessed are those whose files are in motion, never mind their snail's pace.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

BUREAUCRATIC HURDLE FOR MINISTER: Uttar Pradesh's new Health Minister, Siddharth Nath Singh, was in for a shock when he set about putting his department in order. One of his initial instructions was to transfer some of the inefficient officers, but they were quick to get a stay on their transfers from the High Court. Singh was told by his bureaucrats that there didn't exist a transfers and postings policy. He ordered a senior official to rummage through government files, and it was several days before the relevant file, moth-eaten and chewed up by rats, emerged from the dusty government records room. Singh is now keen that the next meeting of the UP Cabinet passes a transfers and postings policy, which will mandate that no government servant can spend more than five years in an area. But requests, particularly those from his legislator colleagues, continue. They queue up to meet him inside the Vidhan Sabha when the Assembly is in session and put in requests for transfers of their friends and acquaintances. — In Business Standard.

'Best boss in the Balkans'

Podgorica: Radomir Novakovic Cakan is a successful businessman from Montenegro, who has earned himself nicknames like "the best boss in the Balkans" and "Brother" by being incredibly generous to his employees.

Cakan, who owns "Cakan Sports," the largest sporting goods store chain in Montenegro, and recently went into politics, has been making news headlines in Balkan countries for years, but not for his professional success. He is best known for the generosity he shows his loyal and hard-working employees. Radomir first surprised his workers in 2012, when he offered four of them brand new cars with complete with paid insurance. They were some of the oldest and most hard-working employees of Cakan Sports. In 2014, after hearing that one of his workers had been saving up his paychecks to buy a ticket to the World Cup soccer final, in Brazil, he took him there himself, at his own expense.

Roasting chicken with sunlight

Bangkok: Sila Sutharat, a roasted chicken street vendor from Phetchaburi, Thailand, has come up with an ingenious way of cooking chicken. Instead of an oven or a charcoal barbecue, he uses 1,000 mobile mirrors that concentrate sunlight into a strong beam. Like most other street vendors, Sila used to cook his chicken over a charcoal fire, but that all changed in 1997, when a mundane observation gave him a brilliant idea. One day, he was hit by the sunlight reflected off the window of a passing bus, and he felt its heat. "I could possibly change it into energy," Sila told himself, and started working on a contraption to capture the sunlight and use it to cook his chicken. The curbed metal frame to which the mirrors are attached concentrate sunlight onto a rotating row of marinated chickens. In just a few minutes, the meat and skin starts to sizzle. Suthrat claims that his invention generate up to 312 degrees Celsius, which is why he always wears a welder's mask instead of a cook's hat, when operating it. He claims that it's virtually free, cooks the chicken evenly, and best of all, it's 100% clean.

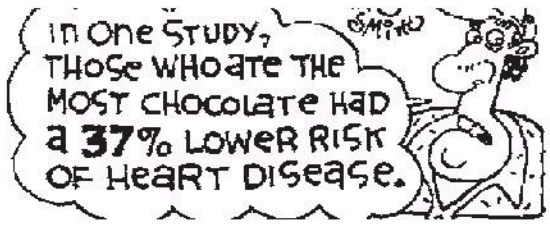
Is the fat in chocolate harmful?



The fat in chocolate is saturated fat from cocoa butter. But it's mostly stearic acid, which does not affect cholesterol levels. It's best to avoid milk chocolate because it has added fat and sugar, which cancel out the benefits of dark chocolate. Milk chocolate has twice the amount of sugar as the darkest chocolate.

Cop who faced Siddu's ire finally promoted

G.N. Mohan

Mysuru, June 17- A Police Inspector, who had dared to book Chief Minister Siddharamaiah's son late Rakesh Siddharamaiah for assault, has finally been promoted as a Dy.SP of Anti Corruption Bureau (ACB), Bengaluru.

He was transferred from Nazarbad Police Station to District Crime Branch Records Bureau (DCRB) Karwar. According to sources, Inspector G.N. Mohan was shunted out to Karwar after he booked Rakesh Siddharamaiah when he was the Nazarbad Inspector. His promotion was withheld since then. He is now likely to take charge as ACB Dy.SP on June 19.

Mohan had booked Rakesh, the elder son of CM Siddharamaiah, on a charge of attempt to murder in a poll-related incident on May 18, 2013. Mohan, then attached to the Nazarbad Station, had booked Rakesh and 10 others under various sections of the Indian Penal Code for allegedly attacking the KJP candidate K.P. Siddalingaswamy, who had contested against Siddharamaiah from the Varuna constituency. Rakesh was named the prime accused in the case.

Siddalingaswamy had lodged a complaint that he and his supporters including Taluk Panchayat Member Mahadeva Swamy were assaulted by the Rakesh-led group of Siddharamaiah supporters when he was returning from the Chamundi Hill. He had suffered hairline fracture in the incident, which had triggered a snap stir with Siddalingaswamy and his supporters protesting in front of the office of the DC. Acting on the complaint, the Police had booked Rakesh and 10 of his supporters.

Siddharamaiah had expressed his anger with a senior Police Officer for booking a case of attempt to murder against his son, without probing the complaint.

Mohan was later suspended for "erring in his duty."

Aadhaar mandatory for opening bank accounts

Financial transactions above Rs. 50,000 can be made only after quoting Aadhaar

New Delhi, June 17- The Government has made Aadhaar mandatory for opening of bank accounts as well as for any financial transaction of Rs. 50,000 and above.

Existing bank account holders have been asked to furnish the Aadhaar number issued by the Unique Identification Authority of India (UIDAI) by December 31, 2017, failing which the account will cease to be operational, according to a Revenue Department notification.

The Government in Budget 2017 has mandated seeding of Aadhaar number with Permanent Account Number (PAN) to avoid individuals using multiple PANs to evade taxes. The notification issued amending the Prevention of Money-laundering (Maintenance of Records) Rules, 2005, mandated quoting of Aadhaar along with PAN or Form 60 by individuals, companies and partnership firms for all financial transactions of Rs. 50,000 or above.

Tightening the rules for small accounts, which can be opened without having officially valid KYC documents, the amendment said such accounts - which can have maximum deposit of Rs. 50,000, can be opened only at bank branches which have core banking solution. It can also be opened at a branch where it is possible to manually monitor and ensure that foreign remittance are not credited to such account and stipulated limits on monthly and annual aggregate of transactions and balance are not breached, the amended Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) rules said.

Such small account shall remain operational initially for a period of 12 months and thereafter for a similar period if the account holder provides evidence that he or she has applied for officially valid identification documents.

The amendment makes it mandatory for individuals, companies and partnership firms to quote Aadhaar along with PAN or Form 60 for all financial transactions of Rs. 50,000 or above with effect from June 1.

Post June 1, if a person does not have an Aadhaar number at the time of opening of account, then he has to furnish proof of application of enrolment for Aadhaar and submit the Aadhaar number to the bank within six months of opening of the bank account.

For companies opening bank accounts, Aadhaar number of managers, or employees holding an attorney to transact on the company's behalf will have to be provided. PMLA forms the core of the legal framework put in place by India to combat money laundering and generation of black money.

Janthakal mining scam

HDK likely to move SC

Bengaluru, June 17- After getting temporary relief from Karnataka High Court in the Janthakal mining scam, former CM and State JD(S) President H.D. Kumaraswamy (HDK) is likely to move the Supreme Court. He is likely to file a Special Appeal in the SC next week.

Sources close to him said that the Special Appeal will state his version of the case where he will claim that the State Government has not provided full information to the Courts regarding the case.

He will apprise the Supreme Court that he had no role to play in Janthakal mining scam and the Congress Government failed to provide full information about the case to the Courts, sources said.

Sources said that Kumaraswamy will, in his SC appeal, state that though the Government has no proof of his role in the scam it wanted to pursue the case due to political vendetta.

Meanwhile, in the Legislative Assembly, the former CM said that he won't be intimidated by the politics of "revenge, caste and vendetta." He alleged that this kind of politics had become ingrained in the Congress Government and took pot-shots at CM Siddharamaiah and other Congress leaders.

"I warn leaders sitting in glass houses not to throw stones at others. History has proven that the glass house is not a permanent place for any leader or political party," Kumaraswamy said during a debate in the Assembly on demands of various Departments.

The leader's remarks come also at a time when the JD(S) foiled the Congress' attempt to oust D.H. Shankaramurthy from the Legislative Council Chairman's post.

"Let them come up with more cases against me. Media has also been speculating if I will go to jail, and what will happen to my Chief Ministerial ambitions. I'm confident of coming out of this unscathed and returning to power," he added.

VOICE OF THE READER

Address parthenium and garbage menace in vacant sites

Sir,

In CFTRI Layout (Bogadi 2nd Stage), there are a number of residential sites vacant since almost two decades and most of them have become filthy dump-yards and an eyesore to the residents.

Parthenium and other bushy plants have grown profusely in many vacant sites making it a breeding ground for mosquitoes and a haven for rodents and snakes.

Similar scene exists in many other areas of the Layout too. Parthenium being a major biological pollutant of our environs can pose serious threats to the health, safety and well-being of residents and children in particular.

The question that remains unanswered: Who will clear up this mess? No doubt, the onus of keeping the vacant sites clean lies on the owners. They seem to be negligent and least bothered. MUDA and MCC are very much aware that the killer dengue cases are on the increase in and around Mysuru and still if they turn a blind eye on this issue, it would put people's lives in danger.

I urge the officials concerned to consider this issue seriously and see that the menace of parthenium and garbage is resolved at the earliest to clear the way for a safe and healthy living.

Dr. Bhyrappa reconstructs the Mahabharata from sociological and anthropological angle, through metaphors in this novel.

Most of his novels have been reprinted several times. His recently published novel Aavarana was sold out even before its release. The novel went on to create a record in Indian literary circles with ten reprints within five months of its release. His writing is inspirational and a huge contribution to the field of literature.

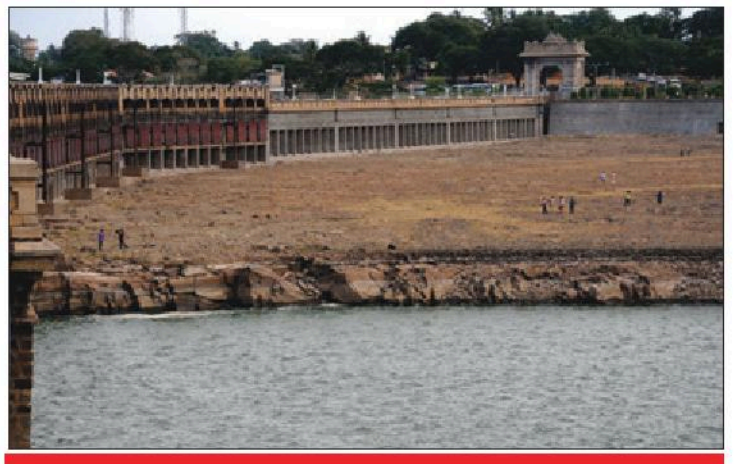
Hope floats as Cauvery flows into KRS



WATER STATISTICS

June 12	468 cusecs
June 13	467 cusecs
June 14	601 cusecs

Water level on June 17, 2017 67.86 feet
Water level on June 17, 2016 74.04 feet

Mysuru/Mandya, June 17 (Nagaiah&BCT)- The Krishna Raja Sagar (KRS) that resembled a rocky terrain in the dry districts of North Karnataka rather than a reservoir is slowly getting filled though the amount of water flowing into the reservoir is not at the expected level.

This year was the first time since 1969 that vast expanses of the terrain especially on the eastern and western side of the reservoir have become visible. Lack of rains since the last two years and continuous release of Cauvery water to Tamil Nadu led to the present situation, say irrigation officials.

Now the good news is that thanks to copious rains in catchment areas including Kodagu and Hassan, the inflow has increased. Water level at the KRS this morning stood at 67.86 ft. with an inflow of 1,397 cusecs and an outflow of 1,075 cusecs.

According to irrigation officials at the reservoir, there has been a steady flow of water since the last eight days starting June 10 (see table). "It has been raining in the catchment areas and the initial rain water was absorbed by earth and only now water has started flowing into the reservoir," an official said and added that it is a long way to go for the reservoir to reach its maximum level of 124.80 ft. "We are hoping for the best and the rains in the catchment areas must intensify for the inflow to increase," the official said. From June 10, we have got about half TMC water and the inflow will increase if the rains continue," he added.

The water level at the reservoir stands 7 feet less than the dead storage level of 60 feet. The reservoir normally reaches its full capacity of 124.80 feet between July and September.

Water level at Harangi Reservoir in Kodagu district is at 2,813 feet while the dam's full capacity is 2,859 feet. Harangi is receiving 800-1,000 cusecs of water a day. Inflow is expected to increase once the catchment area starts receiving good rainfall. Likewise in Kabini too, there has been a steady flow of water as it is raining in Kerala, its catchment area.

7,633 vehicles have 20 traffic violation cases each

Mysuru, June 17 (RK&VNS)- Believe it or not, there are 7,633 vehicles, mostly two-wheelers, which are having 20 cases each pending against them. There are also vehicles which are having pending cases ranging between 5 and 30 as well for various traffic violations.

This apart, the City Traffic Police have also issued notice to Chamarajanagar Bus Depot Manager asking him to pay the fine amount of Rs. 9,300 as a bus bearing number KA-10 F-0198 involved in 31 cases of over-speeding and other violations.

Mysuru City has been equipped with 44 CCTV cameras at various junctions to keep an eye on traffic violators and other offenders. On noticing any violation, the Traffic Management Centre, located at the City Police Commissioner's office, sends the notices directly to the vehicle owners. The city Police have urged people to follow the traffic rules and regulations to avoid being penalised.

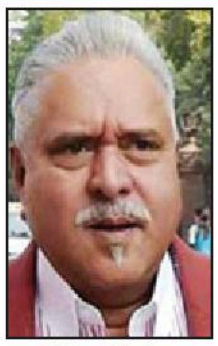
IN BLACK & WHITE

Vikram Muthanna

Why Mallya & UK Court can mock us...



Vijay Mallya

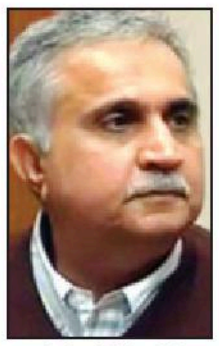
Ravi Shankaran

Nadeem Saifi

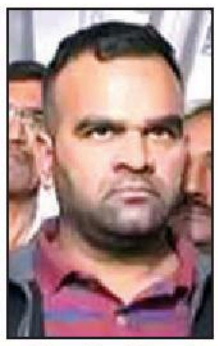
Kim Davy

Lalit Modi

Warren Anderson



Iqbal Mirchi



Vinubhai Patel

On Tuesday, a UK Court said India hasn't provided evidence for the extradition of Vijay Mallya, which has effectively delayed the process till next year! Not just that, the Chief Magistrate at Westminster Magistrates' Court mockingly stated "Are Indians normally very prompt in their responses? They have taken six months so far and we haven't got any further forward in the past 6 weeks?" And now the UK Court has not only excused Mallya from appearing personally for the next hearing slated for July 6 but also extended his bail until Dec. 4.

Now we fear instead of getting Vijay Mallya back and making him pay, we may end up paying the British Court. Why do I say that?

Well, because it has happened before in the now forgotten, Naval War-room Leak case. In this case, one Lt. Commander Ravi Shankaran, an ex-Naval officer, stole documents from the Directorate of Naval Operations, New Delhi (aka, Navy war-room) and gave it to Thales, the maker of Scorpene submarines, enabling them to clinch a 3 billion euro Submarine Deal with the Indian Navy!

It turns out Ravi Shankaran was caught twice by CBI and he escaped both times! Then he finally surrendered in London and India tried to get him extradited. After many hearings, the British Court quashed that extradition order as the two-member bench ruled: "Prima facie there is no case against Ravi Shankaran."

So after 10 years, our investigating agency couldn't even make a case that proved "prima facie" there was a case?! Not just that, the British Court ordered the CBI to pay over a crore to Shankaran for the legal costs incurred by him!

This kind of embarrassment to India due to the inefficiencies of our agencies is not new. Remember what happened to the two Italian marines who shot two innocent Indian fishermen? The case has been on for 5 years now.

Many may remember in 2012 when the Italian Marine story broke, the BJP's ever-so articulate Arun Jaitley quoted Ian Fleming's James Bond saying: Once it happens it's chance, twice is a coincidence, three times is enemy action. Italy's decision NOT to send its marines back to India to stand trial for killing two Indian fishermen was 'enemy action' and India should forget diplomacy and take action.

So what action is BJP taking now that they are in power? Oh! Well, in Jan. 2015 the Supreme Court extended the marine's request to stay in Italy till July and the government backed it!

Meanwhile, the Italians managed to get the European Parliament to approve a resolution which stated that they will be tried in Italy.

There is another reason why the Italian case got strong — incompetence in handling cases and delayed process of justice. To begin with, the FIR was botched up and then the marines were detained with NO charge filed. In fact, the European Union has stated that this detention with NO charge was not only "illegal" but also a "human rights violation."

Now they made it a good enough reason not to have the trial in India as they claimed in India the marines will not get a fair trial and there could be human rights violation! So our agencies shot themselves in the foot with their incompetence.

There are numerous such cases. Whatever happened to Nadeem Saifi? The one-half of the famous music duo Nadeem-Shravan, the man who was the prime accused in the murder of T-series music label owner Gulshan Kumar? Well, Nadeem is comfortably living in London since 1997!

Then there is Danish citizen Niels Holck, also known as Kim Davy who was the mastermind of the 1995 arms drop in West Bengal's Purulia district? He is not only living comfortably in Denmark but he even wrote an autobiography titled "They Call Me a Terrorist" where he confesses that he did drop weapons and also how he did it! Yet, his extradition never came through.

Then we have Warren Anderson, the man who was Chairman of Union Carbide Corporation (UCC) in Bhopal, that killed over 3,700 in 1984. Anderson was arrested by the Bhopal Police and later released on bail with the condition that he will appear before the Court whenever summoned but he escaped to USA. The CBI first applied for his extradition 18 years later in 2003! Nothing happened and Anderson died in Sept. 2014 at a nursing home in Florida aged 92.

Even in the case of Lalit Modi, the Interpol rejected CBI's request for a red corner notice against the former IPL Chief who now lives in London. Even the Mumbai blast accused Iqbal Mirchi could not be extradited from England and he died in London in 2013.

The only Indian ever extradited from UK was Gujarat riots accused, Samirbhai Vinubhai Patel, on Oct.18, 2016. He is currently in a jail in Anand district of Gujarat. But interestingly Patel unlike others, did not oppose his extradition, but "consented" to it, but...after 23 years! After the BJP government came to power.

Why are our agencies so shabby in documentation? Is it because may be they keep loopholes that can be used and misused for politics? Also we are terrible at securing a crime scene and hence evidence collected is weak when presented in Court.

Because of this, like our media which builds a narrative first and then tries to fit in the facts, our investigating agencies too tend to build the narrative first and then try to fit the evidence to the story line. This does not deliver justice. Facts first, narrative next is what delivers justice in Court.

So now, Vijay Mallya can mock us and so also the British Courts... And they can do this because of our own agencies' inefficiency.

International Day of Yoga

This year, the International Yoga Day on June 21 in Mysuru will be special compared to the two previous editions as more than 60,000 enthusiasts will try to create a new Guinness Record for largest number of people performing yoga at one single venue. Apart from this, 6,001 students from 15 educational institutions will take part in an event on June 19 to break the record of longest yoga chain. This Weekend Star Supplement gives an insight into how the Mysuru District Administration and various associations have joined hands to create a new Guinness Record at the Yoga Capital of the World.

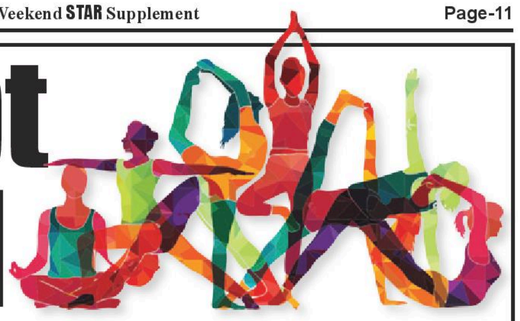
A Guinness Record attempt at World Yoga Capital



Come June 21, yoga enthusiasts across the world will be taking part in the mega yoga events organised in their respective countries as a part of the 3rd International Day of Yoga celebrations. The United Nations General Assembly (UNGA) on Dec.11, 2014 unanimously declared June 21 as the International Day of Yoga after Prime Minister Narendra Modi suggested UNGA the date as it is the longest day of the year in the Northern Hemisphere and shares special significance in many parts of the world.

Finally, on Dec. 11, 2014, India's Permanent Representative Asoke Mukherji introduced the draft resolution in UNGA and it received broad support from 177 Member States who sponsored the text, which was adopted without a vote. This initiative found support from many global leaders. A total of 177 nations co-sponsored the resolution, which is the highest number of co-sponsors ever for any UNGA resolution of such nature.

Following the adoption of the UN resolution, several leaders of the spiritual movement in India voiced their support for the initiative. The first International Day of Yoga was observed world over on June 21, 2015.

In India, 35,985 people, including Narendra Modi and a large number of dignitaries from 84 nations, performed 21 yoga asanas for 35 minutes at Rajpath in New Delhi. The day devoted to yoga was observed by millions across the world. NCC cadets entered the Limca Book of Records for the "largest yoga performance simultaneously by a single uniformed youth organisation" by performing at multiple venues.

The event at Rajpath established two Guinness world records awarded to the Ministry of AYUSH and received by AYUSH Minister Shripad Yesso Naik. The two records were for the largest yoga class, featuring 35,985 people and for the largest number of participating nationalities (84 nations).

This year 300 students and teachers from Rathanapura Vidyalayam School in Sangareddy will be performing yogic exercises at the United Nations Headquarters in New York on the occasion of International Day of Yoga on June 21.

In Mysuru, the District Administration is geared up to create a record for the highest yoga enthusiasts performing exercise at one place. The officials are expecting more than 65,000 people to take part in mega event to be organised at the Mysuru Race Course.

The Department of Collegiate Education and Department of Public Instruction will get 2,000 college students and 10,000 students from Std 8-10 respectively, 10,000 Patanjali yoga students, 1,000 volunteers from Brahmakumaris, 1,000 from Vivekananda Yoga Institute, students from Government Yoga and Naturopathy College, Ayurveda College and MMC and RI, Engineering College, 15,000 volunteers from JSS Mahavidyapeeta, staff members of central institutions such as DFRL, CFTRI, RBI, RMP, Postal Service, Scouts and Guides and other associations.

On the occasion of International Yoga Day, around 40 visually challenged students from Ranga Rao Memorial School for Disabled and more than 1,000 employees of Cycle Pure Agarbathies across units will also take part in the initiative organised by Mysuru District Administration to break the Guinness Record in the Yoga Capital of the world.

Yoga teachers appointed by the District Administration are training the students and employees for an hour on a daily basis to master their performance. It takes more skill and planning for a teacher to train the visually challenged students. The instructions to blind students should be clear, concise, and direct, giving an overview of the pose and a sense of its direction. Tactile instruction, or touching the students with accompanying verbal instruction, is also helpful occasionally.

District Administration will provide breakfast for all participants along with water. Organisers will erect three stages measuring 80ft x 40ft for VVIPs and VIPs and two others for instructors. This apart, 25 LED lights will be put up at different locations for the benefit of the public participating in the event. District level officials have been instructed to bring students from various schools and colleges, yoga institutions, NCC, NSS and others.

FULL-SCALE PREPARATION

The District Administration and Mysore Palace Board have been making all arrangements for the practice session. The authorities have removed the barricades installed in the premises to facilitate students to perform yoga.

DC D. Randeep, who is personally taking interest, held a meeting with the officials at the Mysore Palace Board to discuss on the arrangements. The students would be transported to the venue in 80 buses and they would be provided with drinking water and breakfast. The students will perform in a circular link for which Randeep instructed the officials to lay the carpets. Parking facilities for tomorrow's events has been arranged at Town Hall premises, Doddakere Football Ground, Dasara Exhibition premises, near Varaha Gate of Mysore Palace, CADA Office premises and near Amba Vilas Gate.

The District Administration has also formed a core committee headed by DC D. Randeep and comprises of Department of Tourism Deputy Director Janardhan, Advisor Shylaja Srinath, Palace Board Deputy Director T.S. Subramanya, Department of Food and Civil Supplies Senior Deputy Director Dr. K. Rameshwarappa, District Youth Co-ordinator M.N. Nataraj, Mysuru Travels Association President B.S. Prashanth and Vivek of Chirag Ads. – MTY&VNS

"Opportunity to create Guinness Record does not come to people every day. There are number of people who have been waiting for opportunities like this to enter the record books. This is not only to create a record but also to draw the attention of world towards Mysuru. Our attempt is also to improve the tourism department by attracting a lot of tourists. We are expecting more than 60,000 people to take part in the yoga programme. All six gates of the Mysore Race Course will be opened from 5 am for the yoga enthusiasts to assemble at the venue."

Vishwanatha Shetty and Executive Secretary of JSS Mahavidyapeeta Dr. C.G. Betsurmath along with rank holders at the 10th Graduation Day of JSS Law College in City this morning.

Mysuru, June 17 (RK&BCT)- Over 109 students from the JSS Law College received their graduation degree at the 10th Graduation Day organised at the college premises in Kuvempunagar this morning. In all, there were 16 rank holders.

Graduates and rank holders received the honours from Karnataka High Court Chief Justice, Justice Subhro Kamal Mukherjee and Karnataka Lokayukta Justice P. Vishwanatha Shetty.

Addressing the graduates, Justice Subhro Kamal Mukherjee said that law colleges provide basics of legal education. "But the actual experience in legal profession comes practically which candidates get in courts. Practical and theory are entirely different," he said.

Dwelling on Indian law, the Chief Justice said that there was no dearth for laws. "Implementation of law is very important and every one must be allowed to exercise their fundamental rights. The role of advocates in arguing on behalf of the aggrieved party is crucial here. They have to ensure that justice is delivered," he opined. Law colleges must churn out more and more lawyers and legal professionals so that the society can benefit immensely, he added.

Suttur seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji, Executive Secretary of JSS Mahavidyapeeta Dr. C.G. Betsurmath, Law College Chief Executive K.S. Suresh and Principal Prabhuswamy were present.

ICC CHAMPIONS TROPHY FINAL

'Colonial' rivals to fight for glory

London, June 17- It will be a bandh-like atmosphere post 3 pm in India and Pakistan tomorrow as the arch rivals will take on each other in the ICC Champions Trophy final to be held at The Oval in London.

Both Pakistan and India have stormed into the ICC Champions Trophy 2017 final with dominant performances in their semi-finals against the host England and Bangladesh respectively. The match will be played at The Oval in London tomorrow.

Pakistan has surprised everyone in the ICC Champions Trophy 2017 after being ranked eighth coming into the tournament and was well and truly beaten in its first match against India. Since that match, every game has virtually been a knock-out game for it. It has played as though it has nothing to lose, with a freedom to express its skills, which is commendable considering the situation it found itself in. During its last pool match against Sri Lanka, another must-win game, Pakistan looked dead and buried in its run-chase, but Sri Lanka could not land the knock-out blow with catches going down. As the pressure rose, the skipper, Sarfraz Ahmed, played an inspirational innings to put his team through to the semi-final stage.

It carried that momentum to the England match, where everything clicked and now it has another opportunity to face arch-rival India in the final.

Pakistan doesn't have an impressive record against India in ICC events. That said, the ICC Champions Trophy is the only event where it has defeated India, not once but twice – in 2004 at Southampton and in 2009 at Centurion.

India has oozed class throughout the tournament with each player looking in great touch and clear with the role he plays in the team. The cricketing world was shocked when Sri Lanka chased down India's big total to win at The Oval, but other than that hiccup, India has looked, with England, the strongest team in the competition.

The top order - Shikhar Dhawan, Rohit Sharma and Virat Kohli have been remarkable, looking in total control out in the middle. They are intimidating opposition bowlers with their class and breathtaking stroke-play.

One concern for India is that there hasn't been much work for the likes of Yuvraj Singh, M.S. Dhoni, Kedar Jadhav, Hardik Pandya and Ravindra Jadeja to do with the bat and Pakistan could exploit this, if it gets early wickets in the final. It's a big IF!

India also has great variety and balance in its attack with spinners turning the ball in opposite directions, pace and skill. It is amazing to think that someone of the class of Umesh Yadav can't make the starting eleven.

Jasprit Bumrah is a very important part of the attack. He is one of the best death bowlers in the world, executing his slower balls and yorkers at will under pressure. From a batsman's point of view, it is difficult to pick the ball up early out of his hand due to his unusual action and excellent deception when bowling his different deliveries.

One of the keys to winning big games is each player being able to disregard all the outside distractions and focus on his role in the team. There will be many distractions when India lines up against Pakistan in the final, with a manic crowd likely to be out of control in the lead up and on match day as the hype for this match will be huge. Who will have the last laugh? Let's wait till tomorrow.

WOMEN'S PRO CRICKET LEAGUE 2017

Western Railways emerge champions

Mysuru, June 17- Western Railways showed their mettle in the rain-affected final to win the inaugural edition of Women's Pro Cricket League in city yesterday. Anita Lodhi, who plays for Assam in the domestic circuit, led the way with a 37-ball 34 as Western Railways posted 108 for 8 in 20 overs. Swagatika Rath's 38-ball 40 helped South Central Railways start their chase on a strong note, but three run outs and two major rain breaks broke their momentum.

Western Railways made their intention clear right from the start as Sulakshana Naik, the captain, and Anagha Deshpande started strongly with contributions of 18 and 25 respectively. Deshpande finished as the tournament's second-highest run-getter with a tally of 90 behind Hemalatha's 100 for Royal Phoenix Bangalore.

After Rath dismissed Naik in the fourth over, Lodhi opened her account with two consecutive boundaries in the same over to keep the scoreboard ticking. Lodhi and Deshpande then focussed on rotating the strike, as no more boundaries were hit till the 14th over when Lodhi broke the shackles with two fours off Shravanti Naidu. Gouher Sultana dismissed the duo in the 15th over and Reema Malhotra was run out in the next over as South Central regained control. Sultana, who has played in two World Cups, dismissed Pushpa Kiseur and Anuja Patil to finish with 4 for 20, and V.M. Kavya took two wickets in the final over, but Western Railway found a way to put up an eventual match-winning total.

Rath went on the aggressive as she hit two fours in the first over of the chase by Kavita Patil. She hit six fours in the power play overs as Shani, her opening partner, was happy to play second fiddle. The game changed in the 8th over when Shani and Mamtha were run out off successive balls. Rath hit a 6 in that over off Lodhi to negate the damage, but became the third batter in the innings to be run out, in the 11th over.

Rain stopped play with South Central needing 38 off 34 balls with seven wickets in hand. There was an element of urgency in both the camps when play resumed and the score moved to 93 for 6 in 17.1 overs when the second rain break arrived. Sudha Rani tried hard to take the game away from Western in the final stages, but it was not to be South Central's day.

Western Railway took home as cash prize of Rs. 50,000 while South Central had to be content with Rs. 25, 000.

Indonesia Open 2017

World No. 25 Prannoy, who made his way through the qualifiers, had never defeated the Chinese in their earlier three meetings but it was a different day as the Indian showed great athleticism and better control in windy conditions to emerge victories and enter his maiden semifinal of a super series event.

Compatriot Srikanth, who was playing on another court, also reached the last four round with a 21-15 21-14 win over Chinese Taipei's Tzu Wei Wang.

Show-cause notice to Chamundi Hill Panchayat Chief

Mysuru, June 17 (MTY&BCT)- A show-cause notice has been served on Geetha, President of Chamundi Hill Gram Panchayat asking why action should not be taken against her for asking a Pourakarmika to physically clean an overflowing manhole recently. The notice was issued by the State Government.

Geetha

However, since Geetha has been absconding after the incident, the notice has been pasted on the doors of her house.

On June 7, Geetha and Panchayat Development Officer (PDO) Anand allegedly forced a civic worker to climb down a manhole that was full with sewage. They asked Pourakarmika Ganesh to get inside the overflowing manhole in front of Geetha's house at Thavarekere village. Photos and videos of Ganesh getting into the manhole were circulated widely in the media.

The incident had sparked outrage across the State and an FIR was registered at Krishnaraja Police Station. PDO Anand was suspended and the FIR was registered by D.G. Gurushanthappa,

Assistant Director, Social Welfare Department, Nazarbad.

The complaint was filed for criminal intimidation and for violations of the Prohibition of Employment as Manual Scavengers Act which prohibits local authorities from employing humans to clear sewer lines and septic tanks. All of these offences could attract jail terms of two years.

Following the incident, Zilla Panchayat (ZP) Chief Executive Officer P. Shivashankar wrote to the State Government recommending action against Geetha. Now Geetha has to reply to the show-cause notice within a week following which the Government will decide on her Presidentship and Panchayat Membership.
